Press Release

29th May 2013

The latest Oghma Partners M&A Review for T1 2013 is now available, on request.

It has been an interesting year so far with overseas buyers continued to be an important factor in M&A activity in the UK, accounting for a quarter of transactions by volume in the period down from 30% for the FY 2012. Oghma has noticed a significant increase in deal value ytd in 2013, albeit the number of deals remained in line with those recorded in the first tertial of 2012.
