Press Release

3rd February 2016

UK Food & Beverage Sector: Overseas Buyers, UK Targets, High Multiples

The Oghma Partners LLP 2015 M&A Review has now been released!

In this latest edition of the review, we not only consider activity in the Food & Beverage sector for the final four months of 2015 but also put the year in context, in what has been another fascinating year for the industry.

In our review, we investigate UK Food and Beverage market deals - both the large and the small – with analysis into the buyers, the sellers and the trends. We consider continued interest in the UK market from large overseas buyers, for example Monde Nissin's acquisition of Quorn and Lotus Bakeries' acquisition of Natural Balance which were headline-making deals towards the end of the year and at high valuations. Please do request our review for further analysis.
