UK Food & Beverage Sector: Employee Ownership –Another Route to Exit

The Oghma Partners LLP T1 2016 M&A Review has now been released!

In this latest edition of the review, we consider activity in the Food & Beverage sector for the first four months of 2016, in light of an interesting few years in the industry.

In our review, we investigate UK Food and Beverage market deals - both the large and the small – with analysis into the buyers, the sellers and the trends. Furthermore, we consider employee ownership as an alternative route to exit and the relative advantages and disadvantages to such a process.
