

Press Release

30th September 2022

UK Food & Beverage M&A Sector

The second tertial of the year, “T2” saw a 29.0% drop off in deal volume when compared with the same period in the previous year.

Oghma recorded a more than 90% decline in deal value for T2 2022, continuing the T1 trend. Activity from financial buyers dropped off significantly for the period. This could be a sign of things to come as we are witnessing rising interest rates around the world which will impact on PE companies' ability to raise debt to fund acquisitions
